Louvre Impressionist Paintings

Contemporary Genre Paintings. In 1862, while copying a Velazquez in the Louvre, he met the celebrated Edouard Manet (1832-83), who introduced him to a group of young progressive artists centred around Claude Monet (1840-1926). Although he became a member of this so-called group, Degas felt that he had little in common with these (Impressionist) painters, most of whom preferred to paint ...
