Rinse the onion and drain well, patting it dry with kitchen paper if necessary. Add to the pot along with the remaining ingredients, seasoning with pepper and probably with a little extra salt. Mix through gently and serve warm or at room temperature. If you make this in advance, the potatoes will soak up some of the oil as they cool, so you will have less dressing.

And I mean tears. Not just a slight welling up around the eyes, but big, angry, streaming blobs, blotchy cheeks and howls of anguish. This was not a happy child, and in comparison to the cute little kissing noises she made when presented with my previous chocolate creation, her reaction wasn't entirely the seal of approval I'd been hoping for.
