All-Negro Comics #1, published out of Philadelphia in mid-1947, was the first known comics magazine written and drawn solely by African-American writers and artists. In describing lead feature "Ace Harlem," Time magazine wrote, "The villains were a couple of zoot-suited, jive-talking Negro muggers, whose presence in anyone else's comics might have brought up complaints of racial 'distortion.'

Well of course my best of list would be filled with books by Conundrum Press but I can't choose between my babies so here is another list. No best of 2018 list in comics can ignore the monumental achievement Berlin by Jason Lutes. I've been following this series and stopped at one point so I could have it all collected to read through in one sitting.
