He'd looked back and forth from the road to my reflection in the rearview mirror. I'd met his eyes. It didn't take more than a glance to read his expression. He knew I had no chance for bail. "I don't need a lawyer," I'd said. "And I don't want bail." "Zoey, you're not thinking straight. Give it a little time.

I enjoyed reading Redeemed and it provided a nice closure for the series and will defiantly go on my classroom shelves, however, this was my least favorite of almost all the books MPH has ever written. Time is a difficult concept to capture in print anyway, but this book was very difficult to follow and seemed to twist and turn with no rhyme or ...
